3. "Since Time Began"

   During all the years since time began,
   Today has been the friend of man;
   But in his blindness and his sorrow,
   He looks to yesterday and tomorrow,
   Forget these past trials and your sorrow,
   There was, but is, no yesterday,
   And there may be no tomorrow.

   "The Laggard's Excuse"

   He worked by day
   And toiled by night
   He gave up play
   And some delight
   Dry books he read
   New things to learn
   And forged ahead,
   Success to earn.
   He plodded on
   With faith and pluck,
   And when he won
   Men called it luck.
