Quiz 1-1 Answer Key

FROM THE VIGNETTES

1. (a) In the 1600s, Robinson Crusoe became shipwrecked on an island in the sea. Throughout the story, Robinson struggled for survival and with belief in God. Thirty years after the initial shipwreck, Robinson returned to England a happier man.
2. (c) Pandora was sent to Earth by Zeus to keep Epithemeus company. An unopened box accompanied Pandora. Out of curiosity, Epithemeus opened the box, unknowingly releasing evil into the world. Later, Hope was also released into the world.
3. (c) William Tell was a citizen of Switzerland. An evil tyrant, Gessler, ruled the country. Tell defied the tyrant who retaliated by kidnapping Tell's son and forcing Tell to shoot an apple off the son's head. Tell shot straight and true and freed his son, as well as the country from Gessler.

WORD POWER!

4-8. beset (or accosted), accosted (or beset), snares, devised, Providence

ENGLISH WRITING SKILLS

9. c
10. a
11. e
12. b
13. d
14. (a) introduces the reader to the main characters and provides background information
15. (b) places the main character in one of the types of conflict
16. (a) man to man (Note to teacher: if the student struggles with this answer, explain that although the shepherd boy and the wolf have conflict, and the wolf and the sheep have conflict, the MAIN conflict is between the shepherd boy and the other herdsmen who are tricked by the boy.)
17. (a) the boy
18. (d) the wolf really does come
19. (f) the wolf devous the sheep
20. (a) if you repeatedly abuse your priveleges, then when the time comes for you to need those privileges, they will not be available to you
21. (This answer is worth 25 points. If the student answers that the story is a myth, be sure the student includes the elements of myth, such as the interaction of supernatural beings with humans. If the student answers that the story is a parable, be sure the student includes the elements of parable, such as a "realistic" situation (a person seeing a vision) and the impartation (teaching) of a spiritual lesson (loving other people is pleasing to God, etc.). The others genres of fable, legend, and vignette, do not apply. Hold the student accountable for correct paragraphing (introduction, body, conclusion), correct sentence structure, and correct spelling, punctuation, capitalization.

©Copyright 2005-06, Paradigm Accelerated Curriculum

LIFE PRINCIPLES

22. governs, men
23. only
24. freedom; moral
25. comfort

©Copyright 2005-06, Paradigm Accelerated Curriculum