Quiz 5-1 Answer Key

FROM THE VIGNETTES

1. c
2. b
3. a
4. e
5. d
6. f

WORD POWER!

7. to gather by careful selection
8. to listen, learn and obey
9. the effective management of property, finances and business affairs
10. a decoration along the top of a wall or door
11. disloyalty to one's own country

ENGLISH WRITING SKILLS

12. topic

13-17. (wording may vary)

Chronological: addresses topic according to historical development, seeks to show importance of different events within a certain time period.

Compare/contrast approach: addresses similarities and differences of various aspects of the topic.

Topical approach: separates and discusses each part of the topic.

Problem/solution approach: presents a problem, explains how various experts have attempted to solve the problem, then presents author's own solution.

Opinion/reason approach: expresses a writer's opinion then supports it with sound research.

18. (wording may vary) relate clearly the exact purpose of a paper

19-20. (wording may vary) A circulating book is available for "checking out" or borrowing by members of a library; a reserve book is loaned or "checked out" only under special conditions.

21-23. (any three) encyclopedia, dictionary, index, directory, handbook, yearbook, atlas, guidebook

24-26. (any three) magazine, newspaper, pamphlet, journal, brochure

27-29. (any three) audiocassette, video, CD, film, DVD, filmstrip, slides, microfilm microfiche

30-31. (wording may vary) A card catalogue contains cards in alphabetical order; provides information, such as the subjects, titles, authors, and location of sources in the library.

32-33. (wording may vary) A source card is approximately 3"x 5" and contains the subject, title, publisher, and date of a book. A note card contains the topic and title of a source, the author's name, and the researcher's ideas about the source.

(Example of source card for book—note category and location of each entry for #34-38):

34. author: Albers, E.G. Jr.
35. title: The Life and Reflections of a Texas Ranger
36. place published: Waco, Texas, USA
37. name of publisher: Texian Press
38. date published: 1998

(Example of source card for periodical):

39. author: Burleson, Juanita
40. title: "Edna Hill News"
41. name of periodical: The Dublin Citizen
42. volume or edition number: Volume 14, No. 51
43. place published: Dublin, Texas
44. date of the periodical: Thursday, Aug. 26, 2004
45. pages: Sec. A, page 5

(Example of source card for website):

46. author: Jameson, Frederick
47. title: "Commentary on President Bush's Nomination Acceptance Speech"
48. name of website: Henerd's Heracy
49. address of website: www.henerd.com
50. name of sponsoring organization: Americans for the Iraqi War
51. date of the publication: September, 2004

52-55. (wording may vary)

52. to record the exact words of a source
53. to enable the researcher to rewrite in his own words the words of someone else, without changing the meaning
54. to enable the researcher to list the main points of an extensive passage
55. to allow the researcher to reduce large sections into concise statements

(Example of note card) note the location of each entry:

56-57. (topic/subtopic) The Draft (source) Congressional Record
58. (page number) page H85
59. (author's name, last name first) Paul, Ron
60. (student's ideas about the source in either form: direct quote, paraphrase, outline, or summary) "A conscripted army can never replace the willingness of freedom-loving Americans to defend their country out of their love of liberty."

LIFE PRINCIPLES

61. opinion
62. listener
63. noble
64. progress; value