Chapter 5 Test Key

VIGNETTES

1. a
2. d
3. c
4. b
5. e
6. f

WORD POWER!

7-8. resolution, wanton
9-10. stalwart, stewardship
11. treason

ENGLISH WRITING SKILLS

12-13. The audience was prejudiced against the farmer because the people wanted so badly to believe in the mountebank, whether or not he was right.

(Example of source card for book—note the category location of each entry, #14-31):

14. author: Johnson, Johnny Ray
15. title: Evening Tide
16. place published: Hurst, Texas, USA
17. name of publisher: Benefit Press
18. date published: 2004

(Example of source card for periodical):

19. author: Beacon, Jude
20. title: "Celeste Goes West"
21. name of periodical: Texas Youth Magazine
22. volume or edition number: Volume 11, No. 56
23. place published: Victoria, Texas
24. date of the periodical: Thursday, Sep. 2, 2004
25. pages: 15-17

(Example of source card for website):

26. author: Freeman, James
27. title: "The Choice is Clear"
28. name of website: The Times are Here
29. address of website: www.timesarehere.com
30. name of sponsoring organization: McConnell
31. Show date of the publication: September, 2004

32. (c) discord
33. (d) harmless
34. (b) lack
35. (b) retirement
36. (b) malignant
37. (d) vagrancy
38. (d) "The Iron Duke" of Britain
39. (c) "Sir Wellesley's courage and stamina made him undefeatable."
40. (c) British
41. (e) Irish
42. (b) Sir Arthur was successful because he had the ability to make good decisions
43. (b) Sir Arthur respected authority, even if he was above that authority
44. (d) matter of fact
45. c and d
46. Section C. in 1828, became Prime Minister of England.
47. Section D. He died at Walmer Castle on September 14, 1852

LIFE PRINCIPLES

48. (b) Progress is defined by whether or not you have something good to live for and to offer the world.
49. (a) Do not give your time in any way to a person who tempts you to do wrong.
50. (c) A great person sees things that need to be done and does them.