Quiz 1-2 Answer Key

Each answer is worth 1.04 points.

1. the Bible
2. John Locke
3. the Bible
4. Noah Webster
5. speech; religious
6. (any two) John Winthrop, Jonathan Edwards, Henry Muhlenberg, George Whitfield, John Wesley, Charles Wesley, Henry Caldwell
7. (any two) D.L. Moody, Charles Spurgeon, Oswald Chambers, Billy Sunday, James Weldon Johnson, Howell Forgy, Billy Graham
8. President Theodore Roosevelt
9. General Douglas MacArthur
10. President Ronald Reagan
11. President Abraham Lincoln
12. Prime Minister Winston Churchill

Responses may vary; however, the student should answer each question satisfactorily, showing diligence. The underlined words must be included in the responses. Each response is broken down into numbered parts. Each part is worth 1.04 points for the quiz.

13. (This answer has 4 parts) 1) The Bay Psalm Book was the first song book printed in America in the 1640s and 2) was a collection of Psalms, poems, and hymns 3) used to teach music to school children. 4) The Bay Psalm Book was also a source of musical enjoyment and entertainment for gatherings in schools, homes, civil meetings, and churches.
14. (This answer has 5 parts) 1) The UpBiblum was the very first book written, printed, and published in America. 2) The UpBiblum was printed in 1663 at Harvard College and 3) was a compilation of Bible passages 4) translated by minister John Eliot who for years had worked to provide the Bible to 5) American Indians in the eastern states in their native tongue of Algonquian.
15. (This answer has 4 parts) 1) Of Plymouth Plantation was America's first narrative 2) written by William Bradford. 3) The book was Bradford's journal of the events, trials, and hardships of the first Pilgrims. 4) The book was later published as a story.
16. (This answer has 4 parts) 1) William Bradford was one of the first pilgrims who came to America aboard the Mayflower. 2) Bradford was the primary author of the Mayflower Compact, America's first legal document. 3) Bradford was also the author of Of Plymouth Plantation, America's first narrative. 4) Additionally, Bradford served as a minister to the first colony and as a governor of the same.
17. (This answer has 4 parts) 1) Narrator credibility evaluates the trustworthiness of the narrator's voice. 2) If the narrator is credible, then the audience may belief his/her account of events. 3) If the narrator's credibility is doubtful, then the audience should be skeptical. 4) Narrator credibility can be evaluated by determining if the narrator has an agenda or a motive, or if he/she adds to or omits facts for any reason.
18. (This answer has 9 parts) 1) Persuasive writing provides argument for or against something. 2) The author will try to persuade the audience to take a course of action or to change a belief or way of thought, 3) such as Patrick Henry's speech "Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death" in which he argued that Congress should commit troops to continue the fight for freedom from England and not to give in to the brutal tactics of the British. 4) Expository writing explains or exposes something by providing information, 5) but does not attempt to persuade the audience, 6) such as Dr. Nathan Johnson's letter to his father in which he explained his philosophy of service to country. 7) Descriptive writing is not necessarily a mode in its own, but rather enhances the other modes by 8) providing details and sensory information that peaks the interest of the audience--details such as sound, sight, smell, touch, taste, and feelings. 9) For example, in Of Plymouth Plantation, William Bradford used descriptive verbs and adjectives to relate to his audience situations encountered by the pilgrims.

©Copyright 2007, Paradigm Accelerated Curriculum

DUPLICATION BY WRITTEN PERMISSION ONLY.

19. (This answer has 3 parts) 1) Personification is a technique in which the writer gives human qualities to an animal or object. 2) For example, when author Ron Johnson described the fog in the woods in Window in the Hill Country, he used personification in the phrase, "a thick fog crawled out of the woods and swallowed our ranch." 3) The words "crawled" and "swallowed" are human characteristics that Johnson gave to the fog.
20. (This answer has 3 parts) 1) Rhetoric is the art of skillfully and effectively using language in speech and writing. 2) An effective rhetorician will choose his words and tone carefully 3) so as to enhance his/her literary piece, rather than detract from it.
21. (This answer has 3 parts) 1) A rhetorical question is a question posed to an audience 2) that is not intended to be answered 3) but is intended to provoke thought.
22. (This answer has 5 parts) 1) An author can implement four rhetorical devices that establish a sense of credibility: 2) referring to other established, well known literature that the audience will recognize; 3) referring to well known historical facts and events that the audience will know; 4) providing personal experiences; 5) stating personal involvement or risk.
23. (This answer has 4 parts) 1) An anaphora is the successive repetition of a phrase or word 2) at the beginning of clauses or verses. 3) This technique is used to "drive home" a point. 4) In the Declaration of Independence, the anaphora "He has" begins each listed offense of the King of England against the American colonists.
24. (This answer has 7 parts) 1) Figurative language is terminology that is not meant to be literal but is used to communicate and compare abstract ideas. 2) Two forms of figurative language are the simile and the metaphor. 3) A simile compares things using the words "like" or "as". 4) In "The Crisis", Thomas Paine compared England's tyrannical monarchy to hell, "Tyranny, like hell..." 5) A metaphor also compares things but does not use the words "like" or "as". 6) Instead, a metaphor goes so far as to say that the one thing is the other, when literally, it is not. 7) In his Farewell Address, President George Washington compared the new nation to an adopted child, carefully chosen by the parents: "This government, the offspring of our own choice,...adopted upon full investigation and mature deliberations..."

Responses may vary; however, the student should answer each question satisfactorily, showing diligence. Each response is worth 10% of the overall grade, equaling 20% for this section. Each response is broken down into numbered parts.

25. (This answer has 17 parts. Each part is worth .6 points for the quiz.) 1) A narrative may be told from either a 2) first person point of view or 3) a third person point of view. 4) A first person narrator may be 5) the major or 6) a minor character. 7) In Herman Melville's novel, Moby Dick, the first person narrator was a minor character; 8) in Edgar Allan Poe's short story, "The Fall of the House of Usher", the first person narrator is the major character. 9) A third person narrator may be 10) omniscient, which means the narrator knows all about all of the characters equally—their thoughts, feelings, motives, etc. 11) This kind of narrator was used in Rudyard Kipling's The Jungle Book. 12) A third person narrator may have limited omniscience, which means he has access to the inner thoughts and feelings of only one or a limited number of characters, but not all of them equally. 13) This kind of narrator was used by Dana Garish in her novel, Time to Reap. 14) A third person narrator may be intrusive, which means that he is not one of the characters, but will insert his opinion into the story now and then to explain or describe something. 15) This kind of narrator was used by Sir Walter Scott in Ivanhoe. 16) A fourth type of third person narrator is objective. This type of narrator tells a story from what can be gleaned from the facts only, but does not tell any of the intimate thoughts and feelings of the characters. This is typical of news stories or true accounts, 17) such as Shelly Brady's book Ten Things I Learned from Bill Porter.

©Copyright 2007, Paradigm Accelerated Curriculum

DUPLICATION BY WRITTEN PERMISSION ONLY.

26. (This answer has 5 parts. Each part is worth 2 points for the quiz.) 1) The Gettysburg Address by Abraham Lincoln was given at the site of the battlefield in Gettysburg between Union and Confederate forces during the Civil War. 2) The speech referred to the intent by the Founding Fathers to establish a nation that could endure based on the principles on which it was founded. These principles were liberty and equality of citizens, given that the citizens were virtuous. 3) Lincoln acknowledged that the Civil War was a test of the strength of the American people to endure. 4) The Civil War was a realization of concerns expressed by both Benjamin Franklin and George Washington who foresaw that if the people were not loyal to their government, to each other, and to principles of freedom, but became divided, then they would cause the nation to fall. 5) Benjamin Franklin expressed these concerns in his address to Congress; George Washington expressed these concerns in his Farewell Address.

Life Principles: Each answer is worth 1.04 points.

32. soil; souls
33. reputation
34. liberty
35. consistent; unexpected
36. American

Extra Credit Answers must be complete in their entirety to apply (5 points each)

The Ten Comandments

1. Thou shalt not worship other gods.
2. Thou shalt not make idols for worship.
3. Thou shalt not take the name of God in vain.
4. Remember the Sabbath to keep it holy.
5. Honor thy father and mother.
6. Thou shalt not murder.
7. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
8. Thou shalt not steal.
9. Thou shalt not bear false witness.
10. Thou shalt not covet.

PSALM 23

(1) The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

(2) He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

(3) He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

(4) Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

(5) Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

(6) Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in Heaven
Hallowed be thy Name
Thy Kingdom come
Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our tresspasses,
as we forgive them who tresspass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the Kingdom,
the Power, and the Glory, for ever.
Amen.

©Copyright 2007, Paradigm Accelerated Curriculum

DUPLICATION BY WRITTEN PERMISSION ONLY.

©Copyright 2007, Paradigm Accelerated Curriculum
DUPLICATION BY WRITTEN PERMISSION ONLY.